

Gia D. Carroll Summer Social Skills Enrichment Grant

Description:

The Gia D. Carroll Summer Social Skills Enrichment Grant is named for AutismUp founder Gia Carroll whose motivation to find support and create opportunities for her own child led to the establishment of a summer camp opportunity for children with autism who would not otherwise have a supported camp experience. The Gia D. Carroll grant is awarded to an individual with autism spectrum disorder to attend one two-week session of AutismUp’s Summer Social Skills Education Program at YMCA Camp Bay View or Arrowhead. The grant amount is up to, but will not exceed $1000. Grant amount for one two-week session may vary based on OPWDD grant eligibility.

Eligibility:

Applicants for the Gia D. Carroll Summer Skills Enrichment Grant must meet the following criteria:

- Camper must have a diagnosis of Autism Spectrum Disorder
- Caregiver must provide the most recent tax return (top two pages) for consideration
- Demonstrate via written application that through camp participation, the child has an opportunity for individual growth and development.

Application:

Eligible families must complete the grant application and submit it with a completed camp application, deposit (deposits will be refunded if you are awarded the grant) and related materials to the program department (programs@autismup.org). The deadline is April 30, 2018.
